

A WORD FROM CHARLIE

Congratulations to Ray Young (M.Div.), Rich Keller (M.Div.), and Andy Stacy (B.A.) who graduated in May from Grace School of Theology (gsot.edu). I highly endorse this school because of their clarity on the gospel and their concern for the world.

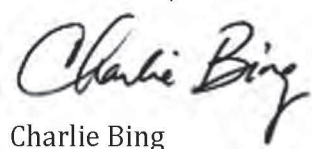

I am privileged to have a friendship and ministry relationship with these three men. They represent the continuation of the grace message. In fact, all three will be teaching for GraceLife Institute in the future--beginning this June with Rich and Ray.

The gospel of grace is only one generation away from extinction. In every generation we need leaders who will rise up, speak up, and share it around the world. Perhaps you or someone you know will accept this challenge to jump in, pray, or give that others may go.

After 2000 years, Jesus' words in Matthew 9:37-38 are more applicable than ever: "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." The only difference is that we have 2000 less years for the harvest and we don't know how long we will be able to access the fields. If you believe that He is coming soon, as I do, then help us take advantage of the doors that are open to the gospel.

I have seen it with my own eyes—God is using His gospel of grace and His humble laborers to reap a rich harvest (See our opportunities inside). Please pray for more laborers, send those laborers, or plan to go yourself!

Until all hear,

Charlie Bing

UPCLOSE

A Summer Season of Grace

GHANA: in June - We will train 50 pastors and church leaders in the 3rd year courses of Gracelife Institute with host Fred Amoah Darko of Ambassadors for Christ. Charlie, Rich Keller, and Ray Young will also speak in churches. Pray that we will be able to finance this week of training and that the Word of God will bear fruit.

NEPAL: in July – Charlie and Roger Fankhauser will teach classes for Grace School of Theology with Bishwa and Ramila Karmacharya. Wives, Karen and Debbie, and another couple, Tom and Barbara Van Wart, will work women and with students in public schools.

Please pray for this teaching to ground ministry students and women in God's Word of grace and for the public school students and teachers to see the love of Christ.

BURUNDI: in August – After a three-year absence due to political unrest, Charlie and Marvin Effa will return to this small country to train pastors and leaders in Gracelife Institute with host Anicet Ndikuriyo of Grace Bible Church. This trip will need your prayers for enough finances to train 60 pastors and leaders. Burundi has been through discouraging and dangerous times, so pray that those being trained will be encouraged and strengthened by God's Word.

If you want to help train these pastors and leaders or specify support for Rich or Ray, please send a gift or scan this box.

GRACE FOR THE RACE

Use Simply by Grace as an introduction to the grace message. It covers grace from salvation through the Christian life and how to share it with others. Study questions make it great for groups.

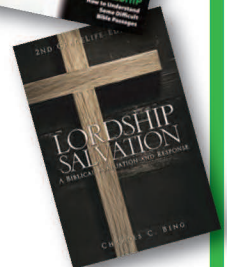

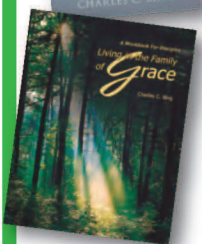

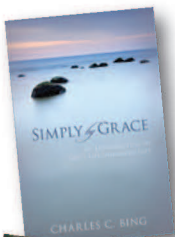

What questions are people likely to ask about Grace, Salvation, and Discipleship? Over 130 passages are discussed in context emphasizing the helpful approach using "A Truth, B Truth."

This workbook is designed to ground people in the gospel of grace using lessons from John, Romans, and Jesus' conditions of discipleship. Living in the Family of Grace continues to prove helpful to all kinds of groups or for individual study.

Still a controversy, Lordship Salvation has confused the gospel and robbed people of assurance. This in-depth book is a solid biblical evaluation and response.

ARMINIAN
FEELING
"PRETTY SAVED"
TODAY

SEATTLE, WA—Stating that he'd had a good feeling about his eternal fate ever since having his morning coffee, local man Steve Devlin confirmed Tuesday that he was "feeling pretty darn saved today... "Yesterday was a little dicey, though," Devlin admitted to sources. "I'd been struggling with some sins and just had a general sense of malaise, so I was only about, maybe 25% sure of my salvation."

...But the 37-year-old said all of that changed Tuesday, as he woke up after eight straight hours of sleep feeling refreshed and is now "probably 95% confident" of his salvation... "I've just got a really good feeling today. I'm almost sure that my eternal fate is presently secure," he said. "Praise the Lord for the blessed assurance we have in Christ!" (Quoted from Babylonbee.com)

Encouraging Words

...from missionary and ministry leader Pablo Cenepo-Torres in Peru:

Thank you, Charlie for coming to remind us of the wonderful grace of the Gospel in a very refreshing and simple way. We certainly look forward to eternity to see the impact of your ministry this week! Believers in the jungle and the coast thank you and we commit you to comeback and share the same message with the beloved in the mountains. Thank you in the name of the Lord!
