MINISTRIES

bringing grace to life

A WORD FROM CHARLIE

Once, as a child, I took a 300-mile train ride. It seemed like it would never end--although it did take all day. So when I heard that Pastor Asa traveled three days on a train from northeast India to attend our GraceLife training in south central India, I was greatly humbled.

Pastor Asa, along with the sixty other pastors, loved our training and wants us to train in northeast India. Looking back on my March trip, I was able to teach the gospel of grace in the far southern tip of India, then in the south-central region to this pastor from the northeast. Not only that, but we released the Telugu translation of Simply by Grace and handed it out to our group of pastors in south-central India. We also gave English copies to the students I taught in Kerala (far south).

All that to say, in a country of 1.3 billion (3% "Christian"), we can't do enough, but we can do something. Likewise, in Myanmar (Burma) we trained over forty pastors and handed out the Burmese translation of my book. Now it is ready to be printed in another major dialect there, Tidem Chin. Grace is going out--by His grace!

After a trip to Trinidad and Tobago to teach in a seminary in June, I will lead a team of ten to Ghana (West Africa) in July where we will train pastors and share the gospel in schools and communities.

Sound pretty busy? Sure, but I told the Lord I'll go wherever He sends me and as far as the money takes me. Yes, even in God's plan, it takes money. That is why I am so grateful to you who have supported me and GraceLife as we help rescue the perishing and train others who are doing that.

This will be one of my last appeals for help in the final push for our July Ghana trip. Thank you in advance for letting the Lord use you!

Until all hear,

Charlie Bing

GHANA JULY 1-15

The mission details: Though there are many nominal Christians in Ghana, most believe that salvation is by works. Our emphasis in teaching and evangelism is the clear and simple gospel of grace. GraceLife Institute classes will be taught by Drs. Roger Fankhauser, Richard Grubbs, and pastors Phil Congdon and Tim Hill. Evangelism in schools and communities will be by team members Charlie and Karen Bing, Laurie Bing, Clayton and Hannah Bing, and Joseph Congdon. There will also be evening and Sunday church meetings. GraceLife will spend over $12,000 to train about 80 pastors and do outreach while each team member raises about $4000 for their own expenses. Our partner there is Fred Amoah Darko of Ambassadors for Christ.

Encouraging Words

Charlie taught at Word of Life Bible Institute, Philippines, in February. A student shares this testimony:

In our soteriology class, I've learned a lot of things that are new to me. Our class helped me to see how gracious God is and that salvation doesn't depend on what I do but on what He has done. It also helped me to define and differentiate justification and sanctification, which most of the people are confused about. I praise and thank God for this class because this is the area where I am really struggling. I pray that I might be able to share what I've learned to others also.
